

THE ELECTION. The people of the District will bear in mind that on Monday and Tuesday next an election will be held for members of the Legislature and Representatives in Congress. The election will continue two days in town and one day at the out-boxes—Tuesday.

THOSE CIGARS. Ploped upon our table by Messrs Tolson & Wingo, were No. 1, and if any of our friends with a good and cheap cigar, they now know where to go. ADVERTISEMENTS. If the reader will look over our advertisements he will probably learn something to his advantage. Bennett & Goss present rare inducements to customers, as they say they have gouged the Yankees, and can therefore sell low down.

BOOTS AND SHOES. We beg to direct attention to the advertisement of Mr. P. H. Flanagan, of Columbia. His stock is always large, and composed of first-rate material and workmanship. In prices we know he can compete with any other house, and purchasers have thus every inducement to give him a call.

FATAL DUEL. It is known to many of our readers that a duel was fought near Charleston, on Monday, 29th ult., between Edward Magrath and W. R. Taber, Jr., one of the editors of the Charleston Mercury. Mr. Taber fell at the third fire, the ball taking effect in his forehead. He survived but an hour.

This unfortunate occurrence grew out of the publication in the Mercury of a series of three articles reviewing the claims of Judge A. G. Magrath to the position of Representative in Congress from Charleston District. Regarding them as grossly personal, the brother of Judge Magrath sent a peremptory challenge to Messrs. Hearst and Taber, and the death of Mr. Taber was the consequence of the meeting. Without giving an opinion upon the cause of quarrel, we may say that the death of W. R. Taber is a public calamity. He was a noble hearted gentleman—ardent in all that engaged his mind or enlisted his feelings. Gifted in oratory, brilliant in writing, his contributions to the political literature of the State had already, in his brief career, challenged attention abroad in the country and admiration at home. Thoroughly Southern, his efforts had been ardently bent upon bringing up to the mind of his section to the great issue soon to be tried between the South and North. And, in this point of view, however we may have differed with him as to time and means, we regard his death a great loss to the State.

COL. ORR'S SPEECH. Our Representative, Col. James L. Orr, addressed a large assemblage of his constituents in the village on Saturday. He gave a succinct history of the action of fanaticism during the recent session of Congress—from the contest for Speaker down to the final passage of the Army Appropriation bill at the Extra Session, and then entered upon the general politics of the country, as involved in the Presidential canvass. He regarded Mr. Buchanan as entirely reliable, judging him by all his antecedents, and hoped for his election. This was exceedingly problematical, however, and late events had shaken his confidence in such an issue of the contest. While he did not avow the opinion to cause panic or needless alarm, it was due to truth and frankness to say that he regarded the election of Fremont by no means improvable. Should it take place, it ought to revolutionize the Government, because Mr. Fremont must illustrate the policy of the fanatical Black Republican party which put him in power, and that policy would deny to the South the equality guaranteed by the Constitution. For himself, he would strike against all Governments that did not give us equality of rights and privileges.

Col. Orr reviewed the late elections, showing how rapidly the Northern mind is absorbing Black Republican doctrines. Unlike other occasions where there were evasions and deceptions, the Democratic party are now meeting the issue, and defending the guarantee of the Constitution. At this point, he alluded to the dissatisfaction existing with some of our editors upon the doctrine of equal sovereignty. He believed it impossible to satisfy some men. They would oppose anything upon a quibble. Propose to carry them to Heaven, Enoch-like, and they would grumble at it as unusual and unauthorized. We denied to Congress the power to legislate slavery into or out of the Territories. How then could a Territorial Legislature exercise the power? He put it to his auditors whether it was not absurdity to suppose the creature (the Territorial Legislature) could do what the Creator (Congress) could not? Squatter sovereignty meant only that the people, when they assemble in convention to frame a constitution, preparatory to admission into the Union as a State, had the power to say in their organic law what institutions they would or would not have.

Reverting to the sectional issue, he said if the mind of the South is made up not to live under Black Republican domination, it mattered little how soon the issue was made—the sooner the better. The question cannot be adjourned more than four years, judging by the accumulating Northern sentiment. He regarded this Government as under the peculiar favor of Providence, manifested in many ways. If the danger was to be averted from us, to God only could we look for such interposition as will roll from our horizon the gathering storm, now black and lowering.

Thanking his constituents for the confidence heretofore reposed in him, he announced himself a candidate for re-election for one term more—and the last. After two years more of service he meant to retire for the prosecution of private interests.

Col. Orr was warmly greeted by his constituents, and we are sure his reception satisfied him of the unabated confidence of the people of Spartanburg. The yellow fever still prevails in Charleston. The deaths vary from two to four a day. The same disease has broken out afresh on Governor's Island, New York. A Brooklyn man's ravages have alarmed a great many, who were preparing to leave.

We regret to learn that Mr. James W. Lipscomb, of Thickety, died a few days ago. On the 25th he did business with him in our office, and now he lies a grave. How uncertain is our life! On the night of the 28th ult. the old Greenville Railroad Depot, Columbia, with several contiguous stores, was burnt down. It was set on fire.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE "SPARTAN." MEMPHIS, TENN. We regret to announce the death of William R. Taber, Jr., one of the Editors of the Charleston Mercury. He fell near Charleston, on Monday afternoon last, in an affair of honor between himself and Edward Magrath, Esq. His funeral services were performed in St. Philip's Church, on the following evening, and his body now rests side by side with that of an esteemed relative and true Carolinian—the late Albert Rhett. The circumstances attending the unfortunate occurrence in which Mr. Taber was killed are before the public, and we forbear from any comment upon them. It is and to know that an able and accomplished editor has fallen—that the voice of a eloquent orator is hushed in death—has as true-hearted and gallant a Carolinian as ever lived has perished, when the present was bright, and the future radiant with hope. He died at a period when his services were most needed. Grieving for his departure, we forget the party questions which often have separated us. And we vain would add a flower to the chaplet which the young men of Carolina are weaving to encircle the brow of their brother, who in life was honored—who in death will be fondly remembered. May his sleep be peaceful—his waking joyful!

October as yet has touched us gently. The roses are still blooming, and the forest leaves have hardly begun to change their hues. Yesterday was quite a pleasant, summer like day, much too warm for fire to be comfortable. The Brooks dinner at Ninety Six on Saturday passed off exceedingly well. Quite a number from Columbia attended it and returned much pleased. Mr. Tombs, of Georgia, was the only orator from abroad, but such men as Butler, Pickens and Governor Adams spoke, and who would better represent South Carolina than them. The New York Herald dispatched a special reporter to attend the dinner and report verbatim the speeches there delivered. The "Times" of this morning contains a full account of the celebration.

The Court of Common Pleas for Richland District commences on this day. Judge Glover presiding. Several important cases are "on docket" and will probably be tried. Among them is the case of Dr. Gibbs, Editor of the "Carolinian," vs. Hon. E. J. Arthur, Mayor of Columbia, brought to recover damages for alleged infringement upon the civil and political rights of the former. It will be recalled that last spring Dr. Gibbs attended a meeting of the City Council without permission; his application for the admission of a reporter having been refused on various grounds, the chief of which was that the "Times"—the official journal—would thus be deprived of a right guaranteed by contract. Well, to make a long story short, Dr. Gibbs was requested to retire, and on his insisting on his right to remain, he was put out of the room by the Chief of Police, acting under Mayor Arthur's orders. Hence comes the suit. Col. Bauskett and James L. Pettigrew, Esq., appear for Dr. Gibbs. Col. Maxey Gregg, Capt. James D. Trudewell and H. W. Adams, Esq., are counsel for Mayor Arthur. The case will be very interesting.

We understand that several persons engaged in burning in effigy a wealthy citizen of Columbia, last June, have been indicted for riot, and may be tried at this session of the Court. We had intended answering the unavailing comments of a correspondent, "Columbia," upon a passage in our last letter, relative to the Citadel and Arsenal Academies, but want of time has prevented. Moreover, his allegations against the South Carolina College have been met so successfully by another correspondent, "Justice," that we deem any further defence of that institution unnecessary. We are in favor of the Military Academies, and as long as their friends do not intermeddle with the State College, do not strive to injure it, and thereby benefit their favorites, so long will we uphold, defend, and advocate the claims of the former institutions. But the moment war is declared against the College by the friends of the Military Academies, then nine-tenths of the graduates and friends of the College will be found defending that institution and opposing the others. We deem it necessary to say this much, and not pursue the subject any further at present.

The election for Representatives from Richland comes off on this day week. From the number of candidates it may be somewhat exciting—no political question being before the people. Yours, CONGAREE

THE SPIRIT IN INDIANA.—Francis J. Grund, Esq., who has been laboring for several weeks with great zeal and effect among the German naturalized citizens of Indiana, in behalf of the Democratic cause, thus writes from Indianapolis to the Baltimore Sun: "Politics are at a fearful height, women and children partaking of the general enthusiasm; and I can give you the Union feeling is uppermost in the public mind, and the national sentiment is sure to prevail. There is a large foreign vote in the State, more than seven-eighths of which is cast in favor of national side and opposed to all sectional agitation. We have a rumor here that Gov. Geary is rapidly establishing peace in Kansas, and all parties unite in ascribing to him just and honorable sentiments. Peace in Kansas is sure to insure peace in the Union. Gov. Lane, the leader of the free-State force in Kansas, is far from being looked upon as a sincere man in this State, where he is best known; and his divorced wife on Wednesday last was in the latter's possession at Greensburg, numbering some five or six hundred, in honor of the two B.'s. There is a very large number of leading Java Thiers who are out for the Pennsylvania candidate, and a very considerable number of Pennsylvania Germans in the State who are professed every species of fanaticism."

A correspondent of the Journal of Commerce, from Chicago, gives it as his opinion that the Democrats will carry that State in November 1856. He also says that Senator Douglas is doing a tall business in the way of speech-making in that region. Gov. Floyd, in his speech at the Merchant's Exchange, New York, on the 3d instant, in answer to one made by Speaker Banks a week before, stated that the American party were friends of the Union, and that he would cheerfully give his vote to Mr. Fillmore, if by so doing he could elect Fremont.

Col. Yendon, of the Charleston Courier, and Wm. Lloyd Garrison, the infamous abolitionist, had a discussion, privately, in Boston lately. It is thought by some that the Southerner had the best of the argument.

B. B. Bots, son of John M. Bots, of Richmond, denounces Mr. Fryor as a bully, blackguard, coward, and poltroon. It is thought a duel will end the matter. Mr. Fryor is one of the editors of the Richmond Enquirer.

The friends of Col. Orr at Williamston are making preparations to tender him the compliment of a ball about the first of November. The Bank of Chester has declared a semi-annual dividend at the rate of 10 per cent per annum. The stock recently sold at $20—four above par value. President Pierce is now on a visit to his home in New Hampshire. At Concord his reception was most enthusiastic—12,000 persons were in procession. The Black Republicans have formed an electoral ticket in Virginia. It is said that doubt has been thrown upon the expediency of having one in Maryland. Hon. C. W. Dudley, of Darlington, declines running against Hon. John McQueen for Congress.

ANNUAL FAIR OF THE SPARTANBURG AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY. The first Exhibition of this Society was held at Spartanburg, on Tuesday, the 30th ult. The Society was convened at the Palmetto Hall at 11 o'clock A. M. The proceedings of former meetings were read; the Committees for awarding prizes called out and vacancies filled. The meeting was then adjourned to two o'clock p. m., and the different Committees, during the interval, went into an examination of the articles and stock for exhibition. This being the first Fair, there was not a large collection of animals or agricultural products—much better, however, than was anticipated by the warmest friends of the Society.

At two o'clock p. m. the Society re-assembled at the Palmetto Hall. Hon. J. B. O'Neal, the anniversary orator, having been prevented from attending by professional engagements, the President proceeded to call for reports of Committees to award Premiums. We omit the formal reports, and only give the list of Prizes awarded, which is as follows: For the best—Sullivan-Sampson Bobo, Silver Cup. Best of B. Hester, do. Horse Colt, 2 years old—Richard Balinger, $3.00. Horse Colt, 1 year old—Sam'l. Tucker, 2.00. Mule—C. Petty, 3.00. Bull—E. L. Anderson, $1.00. Bull Colt—R. Turner, Silver Cup. Boar—W. Prize offered by the organization of the Society for the largest number of Members to be procured by January 1st, 1856, awarded to T. Stobo Farrow, Silver Cup. Prize offered at a meeting of the Executive Committee, held on 24th of April last, for the largest number of members procured by the Annual Fair, awarded to T. Stobo Farrow, Silver Cup. There were one or two other prizes awarded, but being to persons who were not members of the Society, the prizes will not be given.

The Committees to make reports on different subjects were called upon, but few of them were prepared with reports. The President called on Dr. J. W. Parker, of Columbia, a leading member of the State Agricultural Society, who addressed the meeting with warmth and ability on raising stock and experiments in grain growing. Rev. W. Baird, from the Committee on Fruits, was not prepared with a report, made an address on the importance of fruit-growing and the adaptation of our climate and soil to its production. Dr. W. Baird, of Columbia, presented an interesting report on Wines and Grapes. Prof. DuPre read an able report on manures. Maj. J. D. Wright also presented a report on horizontal ditching, which, owing to the lateness of the hour, was filed with the Secretary without discussion.

The committees on the following subjects were continued to the next regular meeting: Agricultural Education.—J. W. Tucker, S. N. Ewins, Dr. J. J. Boyd. Agricultural Societies.—T. Stobo Farrow, J. Sweeney, A. C. Bonar. Cotton.—B. F. Foster, J. D. Montgomery, J. F. Foster.—Rev. W. Baird, E. W. Parker, J. M. Alexander. King. Snow.—Hon. G. Cannon, H. H. Thomson, J. Foster. Climatic Diseases of Spartanburg.—Dr. L. C. Kennedy, Dr. M. A. Moore, Dr. J. J. Boyd, Dr. J. V. Vernon, Dr. T. Curtis, Dr. B. F. Kilroy. On motion, Rev. J. G. Landrum, Chairman of the Committee on Treatment of Negroes, was requested to write out a report at his earliest convenience, and hand it to the Secretary for publication, which he consented to do.

As a further testimony of our respect, be it Resolved, that we extend our hearty sympathies to the surviving widow of our departed brother. There being no further business before the Society, the meeting adjourned to 7 o'clock P. M.

LADIES' DEPARTMENT. The exhibition of the Ladies' Department came off at the Palmetto Hall on the same evening, which was largely attended. After discussing the merits of the various articles, the Society proceeded to hear the Committee on Premiums of the Ladies' Department. The following is a list of the Prizes awarded: For Large Pin Cushion—Mrs. C. M. Golding. Large Table Cover—Miss Hester Bogan. Worst Embroidered Fire-screen—Mrs. M. J. Moore. There were several other articles favorably noticed in the report of the Committee. There were also some premiums awarded to articles exhibited by ladies who were not members of the Society, and consequently the premiums will not be given. After hearing the report of the Committee on Prizes, the Society adjourned.

STOBO FARROW, Sec'y and Treasurer. THE BROOKS DINNER. The dinner given yesterday by Col. Preston S. Brooks at Ninety Six was a grand affair. The number of persons, males and females, present is estimated to have been from five to seven thousand. At about 11 a. m. the speakers and several other distinguished individuals being on the stand appropriately erected for the occasion, Dr. Cain, of Greenville, the Chairman of the Committee, after a few pertinent remarks, introduced General Samuel McGowan, who read a complimentary address, concluding it by the presentation of Col. Brooks of a gold goblet from the citizens of Abbeville District, and a gold-headed cane from the people of Clinton, Laurens District.

Maj. R. A. Griffin presented a silver goblet from the citizens of the immediate neighborhood, and Mr. Preddy presented a walking cane from a citizen of Florida. Col. Brooks responded at some length, in a feeling and eloquent manner, next occupied the attention of the vast audience in a speech of near two hours' length, glowing with eloquence, depicting the wrongs of the South, and most heartily approving the act of our spirited Representative, of which he stated that he was an eye witness. He "saw it done, and he saw it well done." After the gentleman had concluded, amidst the enthusiastic cheers of the multitude, dinner was announced, and every one proceeded to attend to the wants of the table. Notwithstanding the immense throng, there was an abundance of the best to eat and plenty of good cool water to drink. Dinner having been finished, the Hon. A. P. Butler was introduced, and riveted the attention of his listeners almost three quarters of an hour. At the close of his address, Mr. Adams being called on, that gentleman made a few pertinent remarks. Col. Orr was then loudly called for, but the hour for the return of the extra train to Columbia having arrived, our reporter left at that juncture, together with the largest portion of the crowd.

WILLIAM ABBOTT SENTENCED.—Wm. Abbott, convicted at Cincinnati of "manslaughter" upon an indictment charging him with murder in the first degree, by killing Isaac Allison by means of an "infernal machine" stored up at Adams being sentenced to the penitentiary for ten years. The prisoner was first convicted of murder in the first degree, and sentenced to be hung, but obtained a new trial, which resulted in a verdict of manslaughter.

The telegraph announced an immense mass meeting of 25,000 persons at Atlanta, in favor of Mr. Fillmore. A private letter to the editor of the Constitutional, of Augusta, states that there were not more than 5,000, including residents of the city, and that the immense enthusiasm was exhibited for the hour than anything else. GENERAL PROTESTANT EPISC. CONVENTION.—PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 2.—Nothing of particular importance was transacted by the Episcopal Convention to-day. The sixth article of the constitution, relating to the trial of bishops, was made the order of the day for to-morrow.

A despatch from that reliable source, Chicago, says that Colonel Harvey (Free State) had captured the "Star" flag of the South Carolina emigrants in Kansas. The citizens of Cherokee, South Carolina, have resolved to tender to Col. Brooks a public dinner, and have appointed committees to carry into effect the resolution.

The frost we had a week or so ago proved quite destructive. The corn especially has been much injured.—Athens Reporter, Oct. 2. Snow.—We are informed that there was a light fall of snow in the upper part of this District on Tuesday last.—Greenville Patriot.

Hon. L. M. Keitt will deliver the address before the Cokesbury Masonic Female College on the 23d ult. RANDOLPHVILLE, POLK CO., TEXAS, Sept. 9, 1856.—Mr. John A. Morgan, departed this life on the 30th of August, at 85 years of age. As a further testimony of our respect, be it Resolved, that we extend our hearty sympathies to the surviving widow of our departed brother. There being no further business before the Society, the meeting adjourned to 7 o'clock P. M.

FROM KANSAS.—ST. LOUIS, Oct. 2.—A letter to the Republican, from Leocompton, dated the 20th, says that the armed bands have been dispersed and that the citizens were returning to their claims, and business was reviving. Peace prevailed throughout the Territory. Warrants had been issued for Jones, Stringfellow and other pro-slavery agitators. Gov. Geary had authorized Colonel Tins to form a well-armed battalion to preserve the peace in the neighborhood of Leocompton. Capt. Walker is to perform the same duty in the vicinity of Lawrence.

MARRIED. On Sunday evening, the 6th of October, by W. H. BAGWELL, Esq., Mr. MARSHALL KIRBY, to Miss MARTHA DEVINE, all of Spartanburg.

OBITUARY. Died, at the residence of her son, in Greenville, on the 18th ult., Mrs. JANE BRICE, in the 70th year of her age. She professed her faith in her Redeemer in the morning of her days, and attached herself to Nazareth Church. She was an orderly and consistent member of this Church for more than sixty years. She was married in 1802, and became the mother of twelve children, only seven of whom are now living. She was resigned to the will of God during her last illness. Her end was calm and hopeful: "How blest the righteous when she dies, When she sinks a weary soul to rest; How gently beam the closing eyes, How gently heaves the expiring breast!" R.

Died, at his mother's residence, on Thursday morning last, after a long protracted illness, of typhoid fever, followed by diarrhoea, THOMAS A. GASTON, in the 23d year of his age. We deeply sympathize with the friends. A FRIEND.

M'LANE'S VERMIFUGE IN TEXAS. Hear what the Proprietor of the "STAR HOTEL" has to say of the wonderful effects of M'Lane's Vermifuge: "STAR HOTEL," CENTREVILLE, TEXAS, Aug. 22, 1854. MESSRS. FLEMING BROS. I feel it my duty to make the following statement: Several of my children have been unwell for the last week or two. I called at the "BIG MORTAR" to get some Oil of Wormseed and other tinctures to give them for worms. The Druggist recommended M'Lane's Vermifuge, prepared by you, but having heretofore tried every Vermifuge in my knowing without advantage, I told him it was not worth while, as my children appeared proof against them all. He said to take a bottle, and offered it if it did no good to refund the money. To satisfy him I did so, and the effect was so much better than expected, that I got another bottle, and the result was most astonishing. Three of my children discharged a great number of the largest worms I ever saw. To a young man, my large Carrier, who was weak, puffy and poor as a snake, for a month or so, I gave two doses, which brought from him at least a pint of what is called stomach worms! Strange as this may appear, yet it is "true as preaching." How the boy stood it so long as he did, with ten thousand "Bots" gnawing at his stomach, is the greatest wonder to me. All these cases are now doing well. No doubt the lives of thousands of children have been saved by the timely use of this extraordinary medicine. Don't fail to give it a trial.

THOS. R. THURMAN. Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE, manufactured by FLEMING BROS. of PRINCETON, PA. All other Vermifuges in comparison are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of J. S. LEONARD, Director. We can only say TRY IT. A single bottle will cure the most inveterate Sarsaparilla in existence. It contains no Mercury, Opium, or any other noxious or poisonous drug, and can be given to the youngest infant without hesitation. See the certificates of wonderful cures around the bottles, and all bad humors from the blood, and give the liver a prompt and healthy action, and by its tonic properties restore the patient to life and vigor.

Amortyping. L. A. GREEN has just returned to his Daguerrean Rooms, on Church Street, and is prepared to take AMBROTYPES, or pictures on glass—a new feature in the Daguerrean art—in the most approved style. They are taken in a moment of time, clear or cloudy, early or late. The impression is imperishable, not affected by water, light, or the touch. They are far superior to Daguerreotypes. Call and see them. I will remain in town some two or three weeks longer, and if any one wishes to earn the new art, I can learn them much quicker than Daguerreotyping. May 15 19 17
